

Surviving winter sky with a-ha

Nadia Gerassimenko

Out on the fields
I reached inside myself today
To search
Through wilderness and pain
The swing of things
I reach the edge of town
There's no end to the lengths I'll go to Lend some warmth to our cold
It won't be long now
Seasons can't last
Now in the mirror stands
One shot of a clear blue sky
And I try and I try and I try
I dream myself alive
In the living daylight
Blue sky's here for me
I know
I know that I'm alive
